Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 09 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain overnight. Largely dry, bright and cold Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Starting cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, spreading eastwards. Rain clearing by midnight with clear spells developing. Turning chilly, with a frost in places. Becoming breezy. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Friday:
A cold and frosty start on Friday, then it should be a largely dry, bright and breezy day. Risk of isolated wintry showers over western hills. Feeling cold. Winds easing. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A frosty start Saturday, before wet and windy weather arrives. Drier early Sunday, becoming wet and very windy later. Dry to start Monday, winds easing, further rain later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.